THE KENNEDY SAGA, PART 3 CAMELOT BETRAYED

Tuesday, November 14, 1:30 p.m.

Presented by: Rick Tulipano, Historian & Author

Register by 11/13

After JFK's death, Jacqueline Bouvier Kennedy mythologized her husband's memory by creating an American version of the Camelot legend. As we examine the Kennedy/Camelot mystique, we'll see how the Kennedys themselves inadvertently destroyed the Camelot image. Our look at their self-inflicted decline will focus on a doomed marriage in Greece and a tragic midnight drive on the small Massachusetts island of Chappaquiddick.

program will explore the style of painting and illustration established by N.C. Wyeth in the early 1900s and passed on and re-interpreted by his children, primarily Andrew Wyeth and his grandson Jamie Wyeth. Learn about their favorite subjects, their influences and their enduring impact in the art world. Presenter Jane Oneil curates and delivers art appreciation programs to audiences throughout New England. She holds a master's in Art History from Boston University and a master's in Education from the Harvard University Graduate School of Education. Jane has worked at some of New Hampshire's most esteemed cultural institutions and has taught Art History at the college level for more than a decade.

NATIONAL PARKS: SOUTHWEST PARKS

Tuesday, November 28, 1:30 p.m.

Presented by: Steve Farrar

Register by 11/27

Our guide, Steve Farrar, will focus on the tremendous diversity within relatively short distances that highlights the Southwestern National Parks. Although all five of the parks we will visit are in desert ecosystems, the environments range from the 13,000' elevation in Great Basin to the flats of Badwater Basin at 282 feet below sea level in Death Valley. Plants abound - Joshua trees, ancient bristlecone pines, and the majestic Saguaro cactus. Saving the best for last, we will explore the Grand Canyon top-to-bottom! Join us as Steve takes us on a visual tour that includes some of the most iconic images found throughout the entire National Park system.

their relaxing vacation turns into a once-in-a-lifetime cross-country adventure. All-star cast including: Diane Keaton, Jane Fonda, Candice Bergen, Mary Steenburgen, Andy Garcia, Don Johnson, and Craig T Nelson. Rated PG-13.
